v. ) Case No.4:18CR00012
JALEN CORMARRIUS TERRY, )
Defendant. )

Now comes Jalen Cormarrius Terry (“Terry”) by his appointed counsel and moves the Court to extend the filings deadlines and proceedings enumerated below which are set in the Court’s Fourth Amended Scheduling Order of December 5, 2019 (Document 509):

- Terry's counsel is authorized to represent that this Motion for Relief from the Fourth Amended Scheduling Order rests on the grounds that follow:

1. The parties are engaged actively in discussions with respect to both criminal liability and potential punishment for the charges set out in the Indictment. While discussions are underway, the parties have agreed to refrain from filing substantive motions.

2. Counsel for the other remaining defendants and the government join Terry's counsel in asking that the four dates listed above be reset by the Court for dates on or after February 1, 2020.

Wherefore, Defendant Jalen Cormarrius Terry, with the concurrence of all other parties, respectfully requests that the Court grant limited relief from the Fourth Amended Scheduling Order by

A. Postponing the pre-trial motions hearing currently scheduled for January 17, 2020, until after February 1, 2020;

B. Fixing a new deadline on or after February 1, 2020, by which the government must supplement its discovery production and identify its case-in-chief witnesses; and

C. Fixing new deadlines on or after February 1, 2020, by which the parties must file pre-hearing motions and responses in opposition to any such motions.
